

Ten and Walker

Venture building for conscious growth

A marketing-focused venture studio and investment fund backing businesses designed for profit and positive impact.

COMPANY OVERVIEW

Ten and Walker partners with founders, investors, and operators who believe growth should serve both people and the planet.

We combine venture studio capabilities with early-stage capital, helping purpose-driven companies validate, position, and scale faster — with marketing as a strategic advantage, not an afterthought.

Our focus areas

- Conscious consumption and wellness
- Regenerative living and sustainable systems
- Learning, workforce, and human potential
- Ethical technology and digital well-being

How we operate

We engage selectively — as co-builders, investors, or advisors — supporting ventures that align financial outcomes with measurable impact.
